RESERVATIONS

Campsite Reservations

Chief Logan State Park accepts reservations for reservable campsites from Memorial Day through Labor Day weekend. Site rentals are first-come, first-served for all sites from Labor Day through Memorial Day, or as established by the superintendent. Campsite rentals and check-in are handled by the state park only.

The camping reservation season begins the Friday before Memorial Day and ends Labor Day. Only mail-in reservations will be accepted from February 15 – March 14. Mail-in reservations must be postmarked on or after February 15 or they will be returned. A maximum of three reservation forms per envelope will be accepted. If an envelope with more than three reservation forms is received, all reservation forms will be returned. Call-in requests during the period of February 15 – March 14 will be sent blank reservation forms and instructed to mail the completed forms back to the park. Beginning March 15, phone reservations will be accepted between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Beginning April 1, walk-in reservation requests will be accepted from April 1 through the Labor Day Weekend.

Reserved campsites that are accessible to persons with disabilities will be held for such individuals to reserve from February 15 – March 14. Proof of disability must accompany the deposit, and the site must be occupied during the reservation period by the disabled individual for the reservation to be honored. Beginning March 15, the sites will become available for all rentals. All other current reservation procedures besides those described above will remain the same.

Campsite reservations may be made by mail, phone, or in person up to seven days in advance, and must be secured by payment of a deposit for the entire rental fee, plus a $5 handling charge. Payment of the deposit may be made by personal check, money order or accepted credit cards: Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Diners Club. The deposit must be received in accordance with instructions given by the state park office at the time you make your reservation.

Campsite numbers will not be guaranteed; however, every effort will be made to assign the campsite requested. Only one camping unit per site is permitted.

A minimum of two nights, up to a maximum of 14 nights, is required when making a reservation. If a reservation is canceled more than seven days in advance, the deposit will be refunded, with the exception of the handling fee plus the first night’s rental. If canceled seven days or less in advance, no refund will be given.

Reservation forms are available online at www.chiefloganstatepark.com.

CHIEF LOGAN

Welcome to two distinct areas, Chief Logan State Park and Chief Logan Lodge and Conference Center; both brimming with southern charm and genuine hospitality. The two areas share the name of the Chief of the Cayuga Tribe (also known as the Mingo Tribe).

About Chief Logan State Park

The recreational area, Chief Logan State Park, a 4,100-acre park, is one of the most visited in the state park system. Chief Logan State Park is a day-use area and features a campground for overnight stays.

Situated four miles north of Logan, W.Va., the park features a 26-site campground, outdoor amphitheater, museum, and wildlife center. Recreation enthusiasts enjoy miles of hiking trails, a swimming pool with water slide, mountain biking, tennis and miniature golf. Picnic shelters and playgrounds are found throughout the park.

About Chief Logan Lodge and Conference Center

The lodge/hotel and conference center is open year-round and is conveniently located off U.S. Route 119 between Logan and Chapmanville. The facility offers guests upscale accommodations with peace and quiet. The lodge also features a full-service restaurant and major conference center.

The lobby areas are spaces for family and friends to gather. The grand lobby features a fireplace. An expansive outdoor patio area and small gazebo are special places to relax, enjoy nature or to catch up on e-mails or reading.

NOTE: There is no connecting road between these two areas: Chief Logan Lodge and Chief Logan State Park.
